

Kim & KEVIN

Hello

Thank you for taking a moment to get to know us and catch a glimpse of our story. We know this decision of adoption is very difficult for many reasons. We also recognize that there are many more layers to this experience than we even know or are fully able to understand.

Please take heart in knowing that we both believe you are approaching this beautiful, selfless act out of immeasurable love and bravery. This says a lot about you, your character and your heart to be choosing this specific journey. You are truly special and we couldn't thank you enough for making this extraordinary leap of courage.

About Kim

I N K E V I N ' S W O R D S

The very first thing I ever noticed about Kim (from several hundred feet away in a large, dark room, mind you) was her bigger-than-life smile.

She has a smile that instantly lit up that dark room and every room she enters to this day. The second thing I noticed about Kim was her undeniable laughter. It's a force of nature that, much like her smile, provides a window into her soul that tells the world of her pure and infectious joy for life.

Kim has the biggest heart for motherhood! God gave her such an abundance of love, smiles, compassion, laughter and joy that I know is specifically designed to shine brightly into this child's life. I can't wait to experience, share and learn all things parenting alongside this amazing gift that is my wife, Kim.

Hi, I'm Kim!

I was born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee. I love all things people and family! Coming from a large family, we are always making memories every chance we get. I have a twin brother who lives in California, a younger brother who lives in Las Vegas and many aunts, cousins, nieces and nephews who mostly live within 25-minutes of us. I love to go shopping but I also love the outdoors, especially on hot summer days. I enjoy hiking, swimming and taking trips to the beach.

Without a doubt, the best food is Mexican food and we try to make it out to one of our favorite places once a week. I wanted to be in the fitness industry when I was younger but another passion of mine from a young age was kids and possibly owning my own daycare one day. Coming full circle, earlier this year I took a position as the Kids Director at our church and I'm so grateful and fulfilled that I get to love on these children every day!

My color preference is usually pink, although if plaid were a color, that would probably be my favorite!

Hi, I'm Kevin!

I was born and raised in Central Florida, attended Florida State University and eventually transferred to Belmont University in Nashville, Tennessee where I graduated with a degree in Music Performance and Music Business. I have worked in various aspects of the music industry for over a decade so entertainment -- and entertaining -- is a big, fun part of my life. I love seeing how kids relate to music, whether it's a simple nursery song or rockin' out to the top tunes on the radio. When I was a kid, I actually wanted to be a fighter pilot in the Air Force! In addition to all things music, I enjoy exercising, playing sports and attending college and professional sporting events.

My favorite color is dark blue and my favorite food is Florida-fresh seafood. I love going on adventures with Kim and can't wait to share future memories with our completed family one day.

My favorite sport to play is tennis!

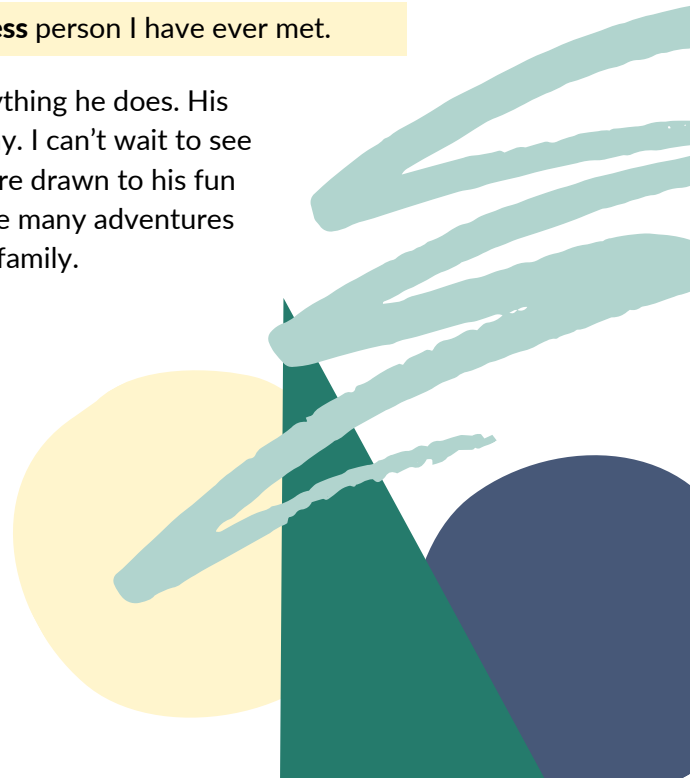

About Kevin

I N K I M ' S W O R D S

Kevin is the most committed, talented and selfless person I have ever met.

He puts others before himself in everything he does. His love for creativity shines bright every day. I can't wait to see him become a father one day, as kids are drawn to his fun and goofy side. I can't wait for all of the many adventures we will have together as a family.

WE'RE SO EXCITED TO FINALLY STEP UP AND ANSWER THE CALL TO BE

adoptive parents!

Kim has had a heart for adoption since she was a little girl! When she and her twin brother were born prematurely at 26-weeks, Kim needed life-saving surgery that would eventually lead to complications later in life for us to conceive. Although she didn't fully understand all of this at a young age, she was always interested in the thought of adopting. We both believe that this was no coincidence, which makes our journey extra special. In a way, we have been preparing for this almost our entire lives and feel uniquely equipped to provide unconditional love for your child as we both honor you as their birth mother.

I'm with you

We moved into our 2,500 square foot home in the Greater Nashville area in early 2017 and it has been such a blessing! It was less than three years old when we moved in and has three bedrooms, a giant bonus room (for lots of playing!), and a nice backyard (for more playing!). We have comfortably hosted family from out of town during the holidays, held baby showers for friends, game nights and even church-related events here.

A LITTLE BIT
family traditions

The holidays are special to us because of family. Kim's large family mostly all live in the Middle Tennessee area, so Thanksgiving and Christmas are big events that are extended well beyond the calendar holiday as family, extended family and family friends--with many grandchildren, nieces and nephews--gather for multiple days of feasts and fun festivities! Kevin's family mostly lives in Florida and this provides for an excellent holiday get-away for sand, surf, sun and seafood alternatives!

Love

IS GREATER THAN DNA

When we began dating over six years ago, one promise we made to each other was that we each would make an honest effort to “show up” for one another every single day. We both feel that this approach should also apply to being adoptive parents and believe that if we show up for your child every day, God will honor this commitment to strengthen our love and care for your child. We promise to instill in them that they are a most special creation and a precious gift from both God and their birth parents.

Thank you for taking this time to allow us to share our hearts with you. We look forward to joining with you and continuing this amazing story together.

with love
